

Class Concept

This is executive level work managing the total operation of a Cabinet, Council of State, or other agency functioning with similar status. Employees direct other executive, managerial, professional, and support staff in the delivery of all agency services and act with the fully delegated authority of the appointed or elected official to whom they report. Work involves; providing leadership in setting agency goals and objectives; resolving internal resource allocation and program integration issues; representing the agency with other government and legislative officials; and, performing related tasks. Employees serve at the pleasure of the official to whom they report and normally carry a working title such as Chief Deputy Secretary, Chief Deputy Commissioner, or similar title.

The three levels of this series are distinguished by the degree of program/organizational diversity, the degree of impact on external agencies including local governments, and the complexity of the supporting administrative structure. Positions that require professional training in a specialized occupational field to technically supervise work within the agency will not be included in this series.

Positions at the Chief Deputy III level manage the operations of the largest agencies (over 3000 staff) with the greatest variety of complex related programs with service delivery mechanisms which require integration internally and with programs housed in other agencies.
