Completing the Annual Salary Plan Report

NEW

NCGS 126-9(b) authorizes Boards of County Commissioners to adjust the salary ranges for positions subject to the State Human Resources Act to conform to local financial ability and fiscal policy. Counties subject to the SHRA must file an annual salary plan with the Office of State Human Resources. The salary plan consists of your county salary grades and ranges as well as other local agency information. This session will assist the person or persons responsible for completing this annual report.

Target Audience:

Space is limited; therefore, priority will be given to:

- 1. Person or Persons responsible for completing the annual Salary Plan due to OSHR each July.
2. Counties subject to the State Human Resources Act

Timeframe: 1 hour, 9:30 a.m. – 10:30 a.m.

Instructor: Bailey Bruce

Price: $30 per person

The Macro Impact of Microaggressions

Using real-life scenarios, this training describes and defines microaggressions and explores how a general lack of awareness and deep-rooted biases can manifest as microaggressions. Participants will learn how seemingly harmless everyday questions, comments and actions can send negative, derogatory, offensive messages; the impact of microaggressions on victims; forms and types of microaggressions; how to respond to or recover from (committing) a microaggression; and how to reduce the occurrence of microaggressions in the workplace.

Target Audience:

Space is limited; therefore, priority will be given to:

1. Employees whose duties are directly related to the training subject.
2. New employees and those who have not received training in this subject.

Timeframe: 1 day, 9:00 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.

Instructor: Regina Streaty

Price: $40 per person

Registration Process

The following recommendations are made to assist you in determining who and how to register your employees for these training events.

1. Managers should review the training content and target audience to determine the best candidates from their office to register for each session. Make sure that each candidate meets one or more of the target audience priorities. Think about what you want to see as a result of each candidate's participation in this training.
2. Talk with the individuals you've identified for the training. Share your expectations for their participation in this training event. Determine their availability to fully attend and participate in the session. (*Participants are strongly discouraged from leaving early, coming in late or otherwise limiting their training involvement due to other commitments, work related or otherwise.)
3. Have the applicant complete the electronic Training Registration Form located in the training section at <https://oshr.nc.gov/state-employee-resources/local-government-support> in a timely manner well before the event is scheduled to take place. Pay close attention as each class has a unique training ID code that must be entered on the form referenced above. Please use the above LG Training Schedule to obtain the correct training ID code.
4. Once the applicant completes the training registration form, you will receive a notification from Smart Sheet. View the request and approve the registration form.

Please notify the fiscal officer or person handling the invoice and payment that they will receive an e-mail after your approval. Alert them that they will approve in the same manner you did. Please reference the screen shots above for the approval process. The invoice will be directed to the person approving as the fiscal officer. They should be prepared to process this payment. Your agency will be invoiced immediately following the training and payment is expected within 30 days of invoice.

All registrations will be reviewed and prioritized based on the target audience priorities. Approximately two weeks prior to the training event, all applicants will be notified of their status by email, as well as their manager and the fiscal officer. The accepted applicants will be given additional training details at that time.

Any unpaid balances from previous training sessions must be paid prior to new registrations.

Cancellations: As soon as an accepted participant becomes aware that they cannot fully participate in the training they are scheduled to attend; they should contact their manager and Tammie Dame at tammie.dame@nc.gov or (984-236-0871) at OSHR to cancel. Failure to cancel in a timely manner may result in the agency's responsibility for payment.

At the discretion of the instructor and local government program manager any class may be postponed or cancelled if enrollment numbers are low.
