§ 1. Definition

Promotion is a change in status upward resulting from assignment to a position assigned a higher salary grade.

§ 2. Policy

When it is practical and feasible, a vacancy shall be filled from among the eligible employees; a vacancy must be filled by an applying employee if required by the Promotional Priority Policy. Selection shall be based upon demonstrated knowledge, skills, abilities, and length of service.

§ 3. Salary Determination

§ 3.1. Use of Pay Administration Policy

When an employee is promoted, the new salary will be determined under the steps in the Pay Administration Policy. A salary change on a horizontal transfer cannot create internal salary inequity. See the portion of the Pay Administration Policy on the equity pay factor for further details.

Unless OSHR has provided approval, the in-range adjustment cannot exceed the increase amount established in the agency or university’s flexibility authorization.
Documentation for the new salary must be established under the procedures in the Pay Administration Policy.

§ 3.2.  Delayed Optional Increases

If the desired amount of increase is not given on the effective date, increases, up to the full allowable amount, may be given at later dates on a current basis.

Note: If increases are to be given at later dates, a notation must be entered showing the dollar amount of the allowable increase, the amount given, and the balance that may be given later. The personnel actions submitted later must state “Promotion Increase” in the description of action block, which will denote that this is a delayed increase.

If no increase is to be given at a later date, no notation is necessary.

§ 3.3.  Salary Increase Authorization Cancelled

If a subsequent promotion, reallocation up or down, demotion or reassignment occurs, this cancels the authorization to grant additional increases as a result of the previous promotion.

§ 4.  Temporary Promotion

Temporary promotions may be made when an employee is placed in an “acting” capacity for a specified period of time. At the discretion of management, one of the following may occur:

- The employee may be placed in the higher level position (if vacant) with a promotional increase and with an understanding that the employee will return to the former position and salary when the position is filled; or

- A promotional salary increase may be given in the present position with the understanding that the salary will be decreased when the “acting” capacity ends.

The agency shall indicate on the PD-105 form (or other similar form) the position number, classification, and salary grade for which the employee is serving in an “acting” capacity and the expected duration. The salary may not exceed the maximum of the “acting” salary grade.

The provisions for salary increases for permanent promotions apply; however, the amount of the promotional salary increase shall be determined by the degree of assumption of the higher level duties.

§ 5. Qualifications

For promotion to another position, the employee must possess at least the minimum recruitment standards, or their equivalent, as set forth in the class specification.

§ 6. Approvals and Exceptions

Any salary actions outside the scope of an agency’s flexibility authorization must be submitted to the Office of State Human Resources for review and approval under the process in the Pay Administration Policy.

Any exceptions from this Policy shall be submitted to the Office of State Human Resources under the exception and variance process in 25 NCAC 01A .0104.

§ 7. Sources of Authority

This policy is issued under any and all of the following sources of law:

- N.C.G.S. § 126-4(2),(6)
- 25 NCAC 01D .0300
