Re: Temporary Solutions Quarterly Compliance Monitoring Report for the Period
January 1, 2026 – March 31, 2026 (Due July 1, 2026)

N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a6) requires the Office of State Human Resources (OSHR) to report quarterly, beginning January 1, 2024, “to the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on General Government and to the Fiscal Research Division on agency compliance with this section and policies and rules adopted pursuant to it, including:

1. “The number and type of all exceptions made by the Director of the OSHR.
2. Any agency invoices with due dates greater than 60 days.
3. Compliance with G.S. §147-86.11(e)(3) through (e)(4).
4. The number of temporary employees who exceeded 11 months of consecutive employment, and the number of days each employee exceeded 11 months of employment, separated by State agency.”

Temporary Solutions, a program of OSHR, hereby submits this report for the period January 1, 2026 – March 31, 2026.

Compliance Report

1. The number and type of all exceptions made by the Director of OSHR (N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a6)(1))

Exceptions on the use of Temporary Solutions by Cabinet agencies

Ordinarily, “all Cabinet agencies that utilize temporary employees to perform work that is not information technology related shall employ them through the Temporary Solutions Program administered by the Office of State Human Resources (OSHR).” N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a).

N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3)(1) states: “The Director of the OSHR may create exceptions to the requirements of subsection (a) of this section only when the following conditions are met:

- a) The Temporary Solutions Program cannot meet the agency’s employment needs for a class of temporary job assignments.
- b) Failure to recruit for the class of temporary job assignments will cause severe harm to the agency’s ability to provide services to the public.”

No new exceptions were made under N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3)(1) during the reporting period.

Exceptions to 11-month limit for temporary employees

N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a1) states: “No temporary employee shall be employed more than 11 consecutive months. A temporary employee shall only be eligible for reinstatement on the job assignment after working 11 consecutive months if the temporary employee is separated for at least 31 consecutive calendar days.” N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3)(3) states the conditions under which an exception can be made to the 11-month limit:

“The Director of the OSHR may create exceptions to the requirements of subsection (a1) of this section only when all the following conditions are met:

- a) The exception is in the best interests of the State because removing the employee from the job assignment will cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public.
- b) The exception will not result in extending the 11-month maximum length of temporary employment beyond 22 months from the employee's initial hire date.”

The Director of OSHR made seven exceptions under N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3)(3).¹

The Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) Division of State-Operated Healthcare received an exception to the 11-month limit for a temporary Business Services Analyst I. DHHS demonstrated in its exception request that removing the temporary from the job assignment would cause severe harm to the agency’s ability to provide vital services to the public. Specifically, the employee in this position was the technical expert for the Kronos timekeeping system that supports over 10,000 employees across 11 facilities and helps process roughly 1,000 service tickets each month. The work unit was understaffed, faced difficulty finding candidates with required HR-Payroll system experience, and was further strained because its permanent employee was intermittently unavailable due to FML. Although the agency was working to add staff, the agency recognized they would need training and could not immediately contribute at the same level. DHHS determined that timely resolution of timekeeping issues was critical to ensuring accurate and on-time payroll for medical staff, and that delay caused by the temporary’s

31-day break could significantly impact morale, retention, and recruitment among affected customers.

DHHS Division of Human Resources received an exception to the 11-month limit for a temporary HR Technician II. DHHS demonstrated in its exception request that removing the temporary from the job assignment would cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public. Specifically, the employee provided essential technical support to DHHS Workday users, including recruiters, hiring managers, and new employees. The employee also posted vacant positions and pre-boarded and onboarded employees in the system itself. While several other employees outside of the employee's work unit had Workday roles/permissions, the agency determined that the employee had more advanced Workday skills than those employees. According to the agency, requiring the temporary employee to take a 31-day break would "impair the team's capacity, resulting in notable slowdowns in talent acquisition and introducing operational risks across the department. Given the essential role recruitment plans in sustaining staffing levels and supporting agency-wide priorities, such a disruption could severely hinder [the agency's] ability to meet critical workforce demands, ultimately affecting placement timelines and workflow efficiency across all of DHHS."

The Secretary of State's Office, Authentications Unit received an exception to the 11-month limit for two Administrative Specialists I. SOS demonstrated in its exception request that removing the temporaries from their job assignments would cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public. Specifically, the Authentications Unit is responsible for fulfilling the Secretary's statutory duties under N.C.G.S. 66-270 through 275, including the authentication of public official signatures for international recognition. These services include time-sensitive matters such as same-day processing of death certificates for repatriation. This unit last exercises statutory discretion to deny requests for unlawful or improper purposes. Unplanned turnover in the work unit has resulted in significant loss of institutional knowledge. The two temporary employees provided critical support to the work unit to meet established turnaround goals. The agency determined that their continued employment was necessary to sustain operations and address increased service demand. If they had been separated for their 11-month limits, the agency anticipated an increased risk that the issuing of apostilles and certificates would be halted, creating significant backlogs for NC residents needing to prove the validity of important documents.

OSHR, Talent Acquisition Division received an exception to the 11-month limit for a temporary Human Resources Technician III. The Division demonstrated in its exception request that removing the temporary from the job assignment would cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public. Specifically, the temporary worker was transferring from another agency to OSHR and his temporary employment was continuous, meaning he was not eligible to work in his new position for 11 consecutive months. In his new role, the employee was assigned to provide Tier 1 and 2 support to state government applicants and agency staff in Workday's Applicant Tracking, Onboarding, and Offboarding modules. He was tasked with identifying issues and solutions and assisting in developing documentation supporting applicants, employees, and agency staff using Workday. Workday is used by most state agencies to advertise and fill state government positions, many of them providing critical services, and its continuity of operations is essential to ensuring a sufficiently resourced state workforce. The Division determined that if the employee took his scheduled 31-day break, the OSHR Workday Sustainment Team would be extremely challenged in providing rapid support to agencies and employees working to fill these positions and to job applicants seeking state employment.

DHHS Minority Diabetes Prevention Program (MDPP) received an exception from the 11-month limit for a temporary Program Coordinator I. The agency demonstrated in its exception request that removing the temporary from the job assignment would cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public. Specifically, MDPP determined that requiring the employee to continue her break would cause interruptions in program continuity by disrupting coordination with community-based partners in newly targeted rural counties, delaying performance monitoring and reporting tied to grant and contract requirements, increasing risk of non-compliance with established deliverables and timelines, and interrupting engagement and support for high-risk participants currently enrolled in MDPP services. The employee's work on the Rural Health Transformation grant included structured milestones and measurable outcomes that required consistent operational oversight. The agency determined that allowing the employee to continue to work would help safeguard federal compliance, protect the state's investment, and maintain uninterrupted service delivery. The agency explained that, additionally, the temporary employee's continued work with the Diabetes Prevention Program in general would help maintain stable program oversight and ensure the integrity of services provided to communities in NC.

DHHS Division of Public Health (DPH) Communicable Disease Branch received an extension to the 11-month limit for temporary a Public Health Epidemiologist. The agency demonstrated in its exception request that removing the temporary from the job assignment would cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public. Specifically, the agency determined that the extension would allow the employee to attend the 2026 Council of State and Territorial Epidemiologists Annual Conference (CSTE). While this alone may not have been sufficient evidence that the employee's separation would cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public, DHHS explained that not completing the funding partner's grant deliverable could impact DHHS's eligibility for future federal grant funding. The agency added that "one of the grant deliverables is for [the employee] to attend the CSTE influenza workshop at the CSTE annual conference. We will not be able to complete this grant deliverable without a one-week extension for [the employee's] 31-day break which would have a severe negative impact on the grant. By attending the CSTE influenza workshop and conference, [the employee] will gain necessary expertise to improve how we prevent and manage avian flu outbreaks. This will also improve North Carolina surveillance of novel flu viruses that have a pandemic potential and could lead to significant morbidity and mortality among North Carolinians."

2. Any agency invoices with due dates greater than 60 days (N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a6)(2))

When a temporary is employed through and paid by Temporary Solutions, the employing state agency receives invoices from Temporary Solutions that include:

- The amount paid to the temporary.
- The employer portion of the FICA tax.
- The employer premium for High-Deductible Health Plan coverage if the temporary is enrolled.
- An administrative charge of $2.00 per hour of time worked by the temporary. The charge funds the operations of Temporary Solutions, a 100% receipt-supported program.

N.C.G.S. § 147-86.21 requires state agencies to which an account receivable is owed to collect the account receivable according to internal policies and procedures that are consistent with statewide policies and procedures adopted by the State Controller. Temporary Solutions issues past due notices to employing agencies when an invoice is 30 days past due (First Notice) and 60 days past due (Second and Final Notice). Additionally, Temporary Solutions issues the employing agency a “Notice of Pending Referral to the Attorney General’s Office” when an invoice is approximately 75 days past due and sends a Statement of Account to each agency HR Director and CFO every month. The Statement of Account is a list of all unpaid open invoices, including those that are current and past due.

Table A identifies, for the period ending March 31, 2026, the number of invoices that were more than 60 days past due, by agency. For a detailed list of these invoices, including the invoice number, state agency, number of days past due, and amount of each invoice, please see Appendix 1.

Table A: Invoices that were more than 60 days past due, for the period ending March 31, 2026, by agency

Agency	Number of past due invoices		Did agency or Division, based on individual budget code, have an invoice owed that was over 90 days overdue and a total overdue invoice amount exceeding $200,000?
	61-89 days	90+ days
Adult Correction	22	21	No
Agriculture and Consumer Services	1	0	No
Environmental Quality	2	6	No
Health and Human Services	7	44	No
Office of Administrative Hearings	2	0	No
Public Instruction	0	2	No
Public Safety ²	129 (see note)	514 (see note)	No

² Of the invoices for Public Safety that were more than 90 days past due shown in Table A above, 322 were for the North Carolina National Guard (NCNG). Of the invoices for Public Safety that were between 61-89 days past due,

Transportation	1	0	No
Total	167	587

As shown in Appendix 1, the average unpaid amount of invoices that were greater than 60 days past due was $1,821.03.

Table B also identifies whether any of the past due invoices shown in Table B required agencies to be suspended from acquiring new temporary employees under N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a2), which reads, effective June 28, 2024:

“The OSHR shall prohibit from acquiring new temporary employees any agency or division, based on individual budget code, having an invoice owed to the OSHR that is over 90 days overdue and a total overdue invoice amount exceeding two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000). When an agency or division, based on individual budget code, is restricted from acquiring a new temporary employee under this subsection, the agency or division shall not be allowed to acquire new temporary employees through the Temporary Solutions Program until the agency or division has paid all invoices that are over 90 days overdue. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to the North Carolina National Guard.” N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a2), as amended by Session Law 2024-23, Section 10.

As shown in Table B, there were no agency Divisions, based on individual budget code, that had, during the reporting period, at least one invoice that was greater than 90 days past due and a total past due balance exceeding $200,000.

N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3)(4) allows the Director of OSHR to grant an exception to the overdue invoice response process set out in N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a2). During the quarter discussed in this report, the Director made one exception under N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3)(4). In its March 5, 2026 exception request, the Department of Adult Correction explained that the lack of a state budget for Fiscal Year 2025-26 had led to a shortfall of over $100 million in DAC’s operating budget. Despite DAC’s efforts to lessen the impacts of this shortfall, including reducing travel, limiting purchases to mission-critical levels, and abolishing positions to generate operating funds, the agency determined that it had to make additional funds available to ensure it could continue to provide inmate food, medical supplies, and other items and services. The agency estimated that an exception to subsection (a2) through the end of August 2026 would help “mitigate its operating budget shortfall, obtain temporary staff that are greatly needed, and purchase what is necessary for safety and medical services in DAC’s institutions.” The exception was approved based on OSHR’s determination that that the restrictions required by N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a2) would cause severe harm to DAC’s ability to provide the vital public services identified in its exception request.

3. Compliance with N.C.G.S. § 147-86.11(e)(3) through (e)(4)

79 were for NCNG. As stated in the last sentence of G.S. § 126-6.3(a2), the National Guard is exempted from the provisions of that subsection, which prohibits new temporary employees if a sufficient quantity of invoices are overdue.

N.C.G.S. § 147-86.11(e)(3) states: “Moneys due to a State agency by another governmental agency or by private persons shall be promptly billed, collected and deposited.”

Temporary Solutions generates invoices prior to each biweekly pay day. This process typically takes one to two business days. Once the invoices are generated, they are distributed to each agency in SharePoint. This process typically takes five to seven business days.

Table B identifies, during the period January 1 – March 31, 2026, the pay period, the date of each biweekly pay day, the date that invoices were generated, and the date that invoice distribution was completed.

N.C.G.S. § 147-86.11(e)(4) states:

“Unpaid billings due to a State agency other than amounts owed by patients to the University of North Carolina Health Care System, East Carolina University's Division of Health Sciences, customers of the North Carolina Turnpike Authority, or the North Carolina Department of Transportation shall be turned over to the Attorney General for collection no more than 90 days after the due date of the billing, except that a State agency need not turn over to the Attorney General unpaid billings of less than five hundred dollars ($500.00)...”

Please see Appendix 2 for a detailed list of past due invoices that were referred to the Attorney General’s Office from January 1 – March 31, 2026.

4. The number of temporary employees who exceeded 11 months of consecutive employment, and the number of days each employee exceeded 11 months of employment, separated by State agency.

Background

From January 1 – March 31, 2026, approximately 7,188 temporaries were employed in state government. Of this, an average of 3,691 temporaries were employed through Temporary

Solutions, an average of 1,858 were employed directly by state agencies, and 1,639 were employed through private staffing firms.³

N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a1) states: “No temporary employee shall be employed more than 11 consecutive months. A temporary employee shall only be eligible for reinstatement on the job assignment after working 11 consecutive months if the temporary employee is separated for at least 31 consecutive calendar days.”

N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3) addresses exceptions to the 11-month requirement. Subsection (a3)(2) states: “A temporary employee who is a full-time student, a retired employee, an inmate on a work-release program, an intern, or an extern is exempt from the requirements of subsection (a1) of this section.” Subsection (a3)(3) states: “The Director of the OSHR may create exceptions to the requirements of subsection (a1) of this section only when all of the following conditions are met: a. The exception is in the best interests of the State because removing the employee from the job assignment will cause severe harm to the agency's ability to provide vital services to the public. b. The exception will not result in extending the 11-month maximum length of temporary employment beyond 22 months from the employee's initial hire date.”

Table C identifies, by agency and employment method, the number of temporaries who worked more than 11 consecutive months without an approved exception. Three temporaries employed directly by a state agency or through Temporary Solutions between January 1 – March 31, 2026, worked more than 11 consecutive months without an approved exception.

³ See Section 1 of this report for a list of the Cabinet agencies who were provided an exception allowing direct hire of temporary employees. In addition, please note that the total number of temporaries employed through Temporary Solutions and directly by state agencies for past months is not available in the Integrated HR-Payroll System, only the total number that were employed at the end of each month. Therefore, an average number is provided.

In addition, 26 temporaries reached their 11-month limit between January 1 – March 31, 2026 but worked longer than 11 consecutive months because they had one of the approved exceptions in N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3) (retired, a full-time student, intern, extern, inmate, or had an exception made under N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a3)(3)).

For a detailed list of temporaries who exceeded 11 months of continuous employment with an approved exception, please see Appendix 3. For a detailed list of temporaries who exceeded 11 months of continuous service without an approved exception, please see Appendix 4.

Relief from Temporary Employment Restrictions in the Disaster Recovery Act of 2024 (S.L. 2024-51; HB 149)

Section 12.2 of the Disaster Recovery Act of 2024 states: “Effective October 1, 2024, notwithstanding N.C.G.S. §126-6.3(a1), temporary employees, as defined by N.C.G.S. §126-6.3(c)(7), who are working to support disaster recovery response efforts are exempt from the mandatory separation requirement for the duration of the state of emergency related to Hurricane Helene or associated Hurricane Helene recovery efforts, as certified to the Office of State Human Resources by the employing agency. The provisions of N.C.G.S. §126-6.3(a4) contrary to this section will not apply and these employees may comply with the mandatory separation requirement within six months after the cessation of the state of emergency.”

Between January 1 – March 31, 2026, state agencies employed 13 temporary employees beyond their 11-month limit because the agencies identified the workers as exempt from the mandatory separation requirement under Section 12.2 of S.L. 2024-51 because they were working to support disaster recovery response efforts, as certified to the Office of State Human Resources. For a detailed list of temporaries who were exempt from the 11-month mandatory separation requirement under Section 12.2 of S.L. 2024-51, please see Appendix 5.

Remediation

Agency employers provided an explanation for temporaries employed through third-party staffing services who worked longer than 11 months without an approved exception. Explanations specific to each temporary employee can be found in Appendix 4. Those comments are combined and summarized, with a corresponding remediation plan for each, in Table D below.

Table D: Reasons for exceeding the 11-month limit and remediation plans for each

Agency	Agency comments (combined and summarized)	Remediation plan
Health and Human Services; Adult Correction; Public Safety	Business operations dictated the need for continued work by the employee/work unit needed the employee to work longer than 11 months. Third-party staffing contracts are competitively awarded contracts and are written as professional service contracts stating that the employees of the contract are employees of the vendor and that the vendor will provide all obligations as the employer of the vendor staff.	N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3 applies to any “temporary employee,” defined as a “State employee who is employed in a temporary appointment for a limited term, including a State employee ... hired by an agency from a private staffing firm.” N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a)(7). DHHS takes the position that these staff are not covered by the statute, because they are not “State employees.” Specifically, in the response found on the last page of this report, DHHS stated, “Contract language states the employees of this contract are employees of the vendor, and that the vendor will provide all obligations as the employer of Vendor Staff.” To have N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3 clearly place an 11-month limit on workers at third-party staffing services, the statute would need to be amended to specifically identify whether it extends to employees of third-party staffing services who work on assignment at a state government agency. Until then, Temporary Solutions will continue to urge agencies to follow the 11-month limit for their temporary staff who work for a third-party staffing service. Regardless of whether these employees are technically covered by N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3, the 11-month limit encourages state agencies to bring these staff on board as permanent employees, and the 11-month limit prevents having a long-term group of state staff who do not have full employment benefits. Temporary Solutions will also require these agencies to report on whether their temporary staff who work for a third-party staffing service took a break after 11 months of service. If any of the staff working for third-party staffing services meet the test to be employees of the State, rather than employees of the third-party staffing agency, N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3 would apply. For this reason, in its December 15, 2023 letter to the agencies approving the use of third-party staffing services in addition to primarily using Temporary Solutions, OSHR wrote: “N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(c)(7) defines a temporary hired by a State agency from a private staffing firm as a temporary employee of the State. Therefore, the following requirements apply to each temporary hired through this approved exception...No temporary employee, including those employed through a private staffing firm, shall be employed for more than 11 consecutive months without an approved exception (N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a1)). Approved exceptions include those authorized in N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a2) and (a3).” Only DHHS can identify, based on the individualized duties of each employee, whether an employee could be deemed a State employee, rather than an employee of a third-party staffing service, and subject to N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3. As stated in Appendix 4 of this report, Adult Corrections also takes the position that the employees of the third-party vendor are solely employees of the contractor and not State employees, and therefore the 11-month limit in N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3 does not apply. The Department of Public Safety is working to improve its tracking of third-party temporaries at Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (JJDP) facilities to ensure compliance with the 11-month limit.

Public Safety	The agency received 90-, 60- and 30-day notifications from TS but the employee continued to work past the 11-month limit due to supervisor oversight.	Temporary Solutions separated the temporary worker in accordance with N.C.G.S. § 126-6.3(a5), but the employee continued to work and submit timesheets. TS is required to pay the employee for hours worked regardless of the 11-month limit. TS has escalated the issue of supervisor oversight of the employee’s temporary assignment to the agency HR Director.
Natural and Cultural Resources, Transportation	[Exceeding the 11-month limit] was due to agency and employee oversight.	The employee and agency received notifications from Temporary Solutions 90, 60, 30, and five days prior to the employee’s 11-month limit. In a weekly check of time entries, Temporary Solutions determined that the employee had recorded time for the week after their 11-month limit. The employee and agency determined this was due to a calendar oversight. In response, the agency requested that Temporary Solutions send its 90-, 60-, and 30-day notifications directly to the agency's HR Division and it would work to ensure employees do not continue working past their 11-month limit.

Adult Correction Response:

For the workers paid through P & G Security Guard Inc. — “The Department of Adult Correction has contracted with P & G Security Guard Inc. since 2021 to provide security to the perimeter of many of our state prisons. The employees of P & G are trained and supervised by P&G staff. P&G provides all staff uniforms and equipment to perform their job. Therefore, the agency has not viewed P&G as a staffing firm but an agency that provides a security service. Due to the nature of this contract the agency has not requested their employees take a 31-day break after 11 months. This requirement would make it very difficult for this company to retain their consistent trained staff.”

For workers not paid through P&G Security Guard Inc. — “Business operations dictated the need for continued work by the employee/work unit needed the employee to work longer than 11 months. These contracts were all competitively awarded Professional Services contracts and written as professional services contracts. The purpose was/is to augment DAC staff when additional needs arise. Contract language states the employees of this contract are employees of the vendor, and that the vendor will provide all obligations as the employer of Vendor Staff.”

Health and Human Services Response:

“Business operations dictated the need for continued work by the employee/work unit needed the employee to work longer than 11 months. [For nurses obtained through third-party staffing firms,] these contracts were all competitively awarded Professional Nursing Services contracts and written as professional services contracts. The purpose was/is to augment DSOHF Nursing staff when additional needs arise. Contract language states the employees of this contract are employees of the vendor, and that the vendor will provide all obligations as the employer of Vendor Staff.”

Public Safety Response:

“The Department of Public Safety is working to improve its tracking of third-party temporaries at Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (JJDP) facilities to ensure compliance with the 11-month limit.”

Appendix 5: Temporaries who were employed past their 11-month limit between January 1 – March 31, 2026 because they were identified by their employing agency as exempt from the mandatory separation requirement because they met the requirements of Section 12.2 of the Disaster Recovery Act of 2024 (S.L. 2024-51)
